To celebrate the canonisation of John Henry Newman, Veritas is delighted to publish this special commemorative volume which includes a short biography of the great scholar and theologian, alongside key excerpts from his writings.

Born in London in 1801, Newman – one of the most notable Anglican converts to Catholicism – was a prolific author whose works, including forty books and twenty-one thousand letters, are considered to be some of the most influential in the history of Christian theology and spirituality.

At his beatification, Pope Benedict XVI said of Newman that his ‘insights into the relationship between faith and
